GEORGE

For many years now, George Wetling has written a column in Down Beat magazine. Instead of writing it in column form, he has written it in a conversational style. Many non-drummers read it because it is so informative. Of course it is highly informative.

When this book was in the early stages of planning, many drummers mentioned herein and to George Wetling, he was very cooperative. This book should contain the best of what George Wetling, with the assistance of Roland and other drummers, has composed. Wetling has composed a separate section for each drummer and dedicated it to him personally. He has also dedicated the solo, "Harmony" to Milton Mesirow.

George is very modest about his work. He was born in Topeka, Kansas, November 28th, 1908. He moved to Chicago, where he first met up with Art Jarrett, who was in school and later in professional work. When asked about the work he has had, he always says that he has had "harmony with Milton Mesirow".

George has played with most of the great bands including the Whiteman, Red Norvo, etc. He has many bands including . . . Art Jarrett . . . Red McKenzie . . . Joe Manone . . . Dick McDonough and many others.

George has made a list of don'ts when playing drums. Don't drag . . . Don't rush . . . Don't try to play too fast . . . Don't play too slow . . . Don't forget that the rests are as important as the notes. If you are unable to play all of these styles, George has put in plenty of them.

This book should be invaluable in helping you to develop your individual style, knowing what has been published for drums and we are proud to present this book in the operation of DOWN BEAT magazine.

A Few Very Neglected Brush Beats

On this one, start with the right hand - bringing the left hand in with a circular motion - sweeping entire head of Snare Drum. Counter clock-wise.

Crawl Beat - This one, you start with either right or left hand and drag it across the drum head towards you. This beat is very effective on slow numbers.

*C.C. Denotes a counter clock-wise motion.

This is a fine brush beat for general use. The left hand is kept going back and forth with an out and in movement i. e. From one side of the Snare Drum to the other.

Here's another one we all use. Keep a steady four with the left hand and at the same time make a rotary swish with the right hand clockwise. Keep High Hats and Bass Drum going.

*Clock-wise.

Lincoln Garden Special

Dedicated to Baby Dodds by Geo. Wetling

WARREN "BABY" DODDS . . . "Baby" Dodds was the inspiration of the author and also of Dave Tough in the old Chicago days. Anyone fortunate enough to hear "Baby" when he was with the great Joe Oliver band heard the best. Born December 24, 1890 in New Orleans, La.; started playing in 1912, joined the famous Riverboat Band of Fate Marable in 1919. Came to Chicago in 1922 where he joined Joe Oliver. In the last few years "Baby" has been featured drummer in many Chicago cafes with his own jazz band.

Ryan's Wing-Ding

Dedicated to Zutty Singleton by Geo. Wettling

"ZUTTY" SINGLETON . . . "Zutty" is one of the New Orleans jazz greats. He was born in Bunkie, La., May 14, 1898. First drummed at 7, using his mother's pots and pans as cymbals and the broken legs of kitchen chairs for sticks and brushes. Famous throughout the world as a jazz drummer now; Zutty worked with the Tuxedo band, the Maple Leaf group, Fate Marable, Charlie Creath, Dave Piaton, Charlie Cook, Carroll Dickerson, Jimmie Noone, Louis Armstrong, Fats Waller, Roy Eldridge, Bud Freeman and Bobby Hackett before organizing his own quartet in 1940. After several years at Jimmy Ryan's Club in New York, and Mrs. Margie Singleton are famous for their "New Orleans style" dinners. "Zutty" some day hopes to lead a fine orchestra of his own.

Southmore Shuffle

Dedicated to Ben Pollack by Geo. Wettling

BEN POLLACK . . . Chicago is his birthplace—June 22, 1903. Attended Harrison High and Crane Tech. First big job was with the New Orleans Rhythm Kings (1921-23); joined the Dixieland Band (1923-4). Went to California in 1924. Started his own band at the Venice Ballroom. In 1927 he opened Chicago's Blackhawk where Benny Goodman, Glenn Miller, Bud Freeman and other new "big names" joined the band. Played the Park Central Hotel in a long run in 1939. Pollack's trouble was his "stars" who read like who's who in jazz. They all started their own bands. Made records for Victor, Variety and Decca. Harry James made "Peckin'" on Variety with his band in 1936. Disbanded in 1941. Managed Chico Marx's band in 1942. Now is a talent agent in Hollywood.

Duke's Favorite

Dedicated to Sonny Greer by Geo. Wetling

SONNY GREER (William Alexander Greer, Jr.) . . . In 1919, Sonny Greer went to Washington on his vacation. While there he met a young pianist who became his lifelong friend. They joined forces in a small band known as "The Washingtonians". The pianist was Duke Ellington and Sonny has been with him ever since. Sonny was born in Long Branch, N. J. in 1903. He played his first professional job with Harry Yerek during World War I. There are many who don't appreciate the fine work of Sonny as they should, but the ingenuity he shows with the Ellington band is terrific. Every major record made by The Duke features his drumming.

Brush Beat

A handwritten musical score for a six-part setting of the hymn 'Adeste Fideles'. The score is arranged in six systems, each containing two staves. The top two systems feature a basso continuo staff with a large bassoon-like instrument and a soprano staff. The middle two systems feature an alto staff with a cello-like instrument and a tenor staff with a bassoon-like instrument. The bottom two systems feature two bass staves, each with a cello-like instrument. The music is in common time and includes various musical markings such as fermatas, slurs, and dynamic signs. The handwriting is in black ink on white paper.

Chicago West Side

Dedicated to Dave Tough by Geo. Wetling

DAVE TOUGH . . . A real Chicago drummer, Dave was born in Oak Park, Ill., in 1907. One of my favorite drummers and like myself was greatly influenced by Baby Dodds. At Lewis Institute in Chicago, he met Jim MacPartland, one of the Austin High gang. He played with them for a few years. In 1928 he took a trip to Europe with Danny Polo and the sensation he created there will long be remembered by all Europeans. In 1935 he joined Tommy Dorsey and stayed with him until Krupa left Benny Goodman. Was picked by Benny to take Gene's place. Some of Dave's best work can be heard on Tommy Dorsey's "Twilight In Turkey", "Satan Takes A Holiday" and "Blues In My Flat" by Goodman's quartet.

Carvin' Carmen

Dedicated to Cozy Cole by Geo. Wetling

"COZY" COLE . . . Cozy decided to play drums when he was 18. He started studying with private teachers and wound up studying tymponi with Soul Goodman of the New York Philharmonic. Cozy was born in East Orange, N. J., in 1909. He started on his professional career with Wilbur Sweatman's band in 1928. Later joined Blanche Calloway, Benny Carter, Willie Bryant, Stuff Smith and back in the Calloway family with Blanche's brother, Cab. Stayed with Cab from 1939 to 1942. He recorded two fine drum solos with Cab's band: "Paradiddle" and "Crescendo In Drums". Cozy is now playing the Carmen Jones show in New York and making records with small bands.

Boulevards of Paris

Dedicated to Ray Bauduc by Geo. Wetling

RAY BAUDUC . . . Bauduc comes from the birthplace of Jazz, New Orleans. He was born there in 1909. When he was 14 he sat in with his brother's band. That was the beginning of an illustrious career. Although Ray is considered America's foremost Dixieland drummer, he says that the "two-beat" stuff is over-rated. Came to New York from high school in 1926, to join Venuti. Played with the famous Scranton Sirens, Red Nichols, Freddie Rich, Ben Pollack and Bob Crosby, who he joined in 1935. His biggest success was with the Bobcats where he recorded all the dixieland classics such as "Rampart Street Parade" etc. He is now in the U. S. Army.

On The Double

Dedicated to Buddy Schutz by Geo. Wetling

DOLPH M. "BUDDY" SCHUTZ . . . When "Buddy" Schutz plays New Jersey's Meadowbrook, he is really on his home grounds. He was born a few miles from this famous spot, and still calls Union City home. He sounded on his first "A" there in 1914. Played with Honk Biagini, Charlie Barnet and Benny Goodman. Has been with Jimmy Dorsey for six years. Made all his famous records including "John Silver", "Jersey Bounce" etc.

Note: Double Paradiddle - diddle beat, keeping right hand as lead hand for accents on Cym. etc.

Anti-Aircraft

Rocket To Mars

Dedicated to Buddy Rich by Geo. Wetling

BUDDY RICH . . . Buddy's mother and father were both vaudeville actors and hopped around the country so much that Buddy didn't start going to school until he was 14. He finally got in a little of the 3's in his home town of Brooklyn. His first name is Bernard, although nobody ever calls him anything but Buddy.

A Superman comic strip fan, a non-drinking, non-smoking rarity. He likes swimming, horseback riding and his very expensive custom built car.

Before joining Tommy Dorsey, whom he left to join the Marines, Buddy worked with Joe Marsala, Artie Shaw and Bunny Berigan. He received his medical discharge from the Corps recently, and rejoined Tommy Dorsey.

Cannon Ball

Dedicated to Maurice Purtil by Geo. Wetling

MAURICE PURTILL . . . Maurice Purtil started drumming while in high school in Huntington, Long Island — where he was born May 4, 1916. Learned rudiments from private teachers, played with local bands. It wasn't long before he was picked by Red Norvo to be his drummer in the band that caused such a sensation at the Blackhawk Restaurant in Chicago, 1937. From Red's band he joined Tommy Dorsey for a couple of years and then with the famous Glenn Miller band, where he made all those fine records like "Anvil Chorus", "Tuxedo Junction" etc. When Miller's band broke up, he joined the old Professor — Kay Kayser. Right now Maurice is playing for Uncle Sam at the Great Lakes.

The sheet music for 'Cannon Ball' consists of four staves of musical notation. The top two staves are for the drums, with the first staff labeled 'Hi Hat' and the second labeled 'L. H.' (Left Hand). The bottom two staves are for the bass. The notation includes various drumming techniques indicated by arrows and numbers (e.g., '6', '3') above the notes. The music is in common time.

Night Bomber

Dedicated to Cliff Leeman by Geo. Wetling

CLIFF LEEMAN . . . Cliff Leeman comes from Portland, Maine. Was born there in 1913. Began playing around Portland in 1933, and was soon on the road to the big time, when he joined Hank Biagini. Soon after that he joined Artie Shaw and made the "Beguine" record with Artie that is so famous right now. From Artie's band, he went with Tommy Dorsey and then Charlie Barnet. He also played a short time with Raymond Scott's C.B.S. Orchestra. Mr. Scott claims he is one of the best drummers ever to work for him.

The sheet music for 'Night Bomber' consists of three staves of musical notation. The top staff is for the drums, with the first two measures labeled 'Hi Hat' and the third measure labeled 'Heavy accent'. The middle staff is for the bass. The bottom staff is for the drums, with measures labeled 'R.S.', 'C.Cym.', 'R.S.', 'C.Cym.', 'R.S.', 'C.Cym.', 'R.S.', and 'H.H.'. The notation includes various drumming techniques indicated by arrows and numbers (e.g., '6', '3') above the notes. The music is in common time.

Jungle Jolly

The sheet music for 'Jungle Jolly' consists of two staves of musical notation. The top staff is for the drums, and the bottom staff is for the bass. The notation includes various drumming techniques indicated by arrows and numbers (e.g., '6', '3') above the notes. The music is in common time.

Note: The above is to be played on four Tom-Toms Ten, twelve, sixteen and twenty inch Tom-Toms

Ridin' The Brush

Dedicated to Sammy Weiss by Geo. Wetling

SAMMY WEISS . . . Sam played drums at a party when he was 12. He received $2.00 for the job and right then and there decided that he'd like to continue getting paid for working. That was the beginning of the career of "Suitcase Sammy" — called that because he liked to play on a carrying case with brushes. Sam was born September 1, 1910 in New York City. His first real job was at the Roseland Ballroom in New York with Gene Kardo's band. Benny Goodman dropped in there one night and offered him a job, which Sam accepted. From Benny, Sam went with Willard Robinson, then Tommy Dorsey. Soon after playing with Dorsey, Sam went in for radio work and has been in the studios since. Now one of the staff drummers on the Blue Network.

P. T. Boat

Dedicated to Mickey Scrima by Geo. Wetling

MICKEY SCRIMA . . . Pittsburgh born in 1916, Mickey was an all-around athlete in high school and Duquesne University where he studied music, played in the college band. Played with Ina Ray Hutton for six months, then signed up with Harry James three years ago. Likes Lunceford, thought Chick Webb drum-king and picks Dave Tough as the best drummer around today. Mickey boxes, collects hot records and is a sports fan. Once danced with his sister professionally. Now owns "rib-joint" in Hollywood.

Moon Maiden

Dedicated to Nick Fatool by Geo. Wetting

NICK FATOOL . . . Nick Fatool stepped into the "big time" when he joined Benny Goodman in 1939. Until then he had been playing with the famous Joe Haymes and George Hall.

Nick was born in Milbury, Mass. in 1915. He attended high school in Providence, R. I. when he took an interest in drums. Nick has also been with Artie Shaw, Claude Thornhill, Jon Savitt and Alvina Rey. Nick decided to settle in California. He has made his home in Hollywood and is now doing studio work there.

The musical score for "Moon Maiden" consists of two staves of bass drum notation. The top staff is labeled "H. H." (High Hat) and the bottom staff is labeled "Cym." (Cymbal). The notation includes various dynamic markings such as '>' (upward arrow), '> 3' (upward arrow with a '3' over it), and 'v' (downward arrow). There are also rests and a few eighth-note strokes. The score is divided into four measures, with the first measure ending on a rest and the second measure starting with a dynamic '> 3'.

Witchcraft

Dedicated to Frankie Carlson by Geo. Wetting

FRANKIE CARLSON . . . Born about 1916, in New York City. Played with local band until he joined Woody Herman in 1936. Was a member of the Herman corporation until 1942. Left the band to work in a defense plant. Was the drummer on all of Woody's hit recordings for six years, including the small "Chips From The Woodchoppers" discs.

The musical score for "Witchcraft" consists of two staves of bass drum notation. The top staff is labeled "Tom-Tom" and the bottom staff is labeled "H. H." (High Hat). The notation includes various dynamic markings such as '>' (upward arrow), '> 3' (upward arrow with a '3' over it), and 'v' (downward arrow). There are also rests and a few eighth-note strokes. The score is divided into four measures, with the first measure ending on a rest and the second measure starting with a dynamic '> 3'. The third measure ends with a dynamic 'R.S.' (Ritardando) and the fourth measure ends with a dynamic 'S.D.' (Sforzando).

Fadin' The Highhats

Dedicated to Joe Jones by Geo. Wetling

JONATHAN JOE JONES . . . Joe Jones, master of the high-hats, was born in Chicago, October 7, 1911—but received his schooling at A. & M. Institute, Alabama. Is purely a Kansas City style drummer. His marvelous work on the high-hats with the Basie band is known from coast-to-coast. Joe joined the Basie band in 1936 and has been with them ever since. Some of his best work is to be found on such records as "The World Is Mad", "One O'Clock Jump", "Jumpin' At The Woodside", "Goin' To Chicago Blues", "Taxi War Dance", etc., all with the Basie band.

V - - -

Dedicated to Rollo Laylan by Geo. Wetling

ROLLO LAYLAN . . . Born January 4, 1911 — Genoa, Wis. His mother — who played fine ragtime piano she learned from river boat musicians, gave him his early musical training.

At University of Wisconsin, Madison; he played fraternity parties with Bunny Berigan's College Band. Studied with Ed Straight and Gene Krupa in Chicago. Worked the dives and studied the drumming of George Wetling, Dave Tough and Roy Bauduc. Came to New York with Ray McKinley. Recorded with Sid Phillips All Star Band, Paul Whiteman, Seger Ellis, Emery Deutsch, Joe Marsala, Eddie Condon, Florida for three years, with Paramount Pictures, Pop-eye and Superman Cartoons, Olympia Theatre, 3rd Army Air Force Band eight months. At present in New York, writing, teaching, playing.

Note: For the boys who might wish to "sling" a Field Drum and do a little knee-action on "V" day, this rudimental study is respectfully dedicated.

Uptown Society

Dedicated to Sidney "Big Sid" Catlett by Geo. Wetling

SIDNEY (BIG SID) CATLETT . . . "Big Sid" comes from Evansville, Ind. Was born there January 17, 1910. Went to high school in Chicago. He played in local bands in Chicago, then with Stewart, Chicago's Michigan Theatre (1930-33), McKinney's Cotton Pickers (1933-34), Jeter-Pilar (1934-35), Don Redman (1935-39), Louis Armstrong (1938-42), except for short stands with Roy Eldridge and Benny Goodman (1941). Recorded with Redman, Armstrong, Goodman, Eddie Condon, F. Henderson, Benny Carter, Spike Hughes. Was picked as All-American Drummer in Esquire 1944 poll.

Straight Flush

Dedicated to Chick Webb by Geo. Wetling

CHICK WEBB . . . in the summer of 1939, one of the greatest drummers to ever beat a drum passed away. Anyone can imitate, but Chick was really unique in setting an original style. The breaks he used to play were nothing short of electrifying. Chick was born in Baltimore in 1907. He bought his first set of drums for $10.00, which he earned by selling newspapers. At 12, he was playing with local bands around Baltimore. Came to New York where he played with various bands until 1925. In 1926 he formed his own orchestra. He created a sensation with his recordings of "Liza" — "Clap Hands Here Comes Charlie" — "Harlem Congo" etc. Also reigned supreme at Harlem's famous Savoy Ballroom. Ella Fitzgerald was one of his discoveries.

Dedicated to Sgt. Ray McKinley by Geo. Wetling

SGT. RAY MCKINLEY . . . A true son of Texas, Ray was born in Fort Worth, Texas, in 1910. He played in and around Fort Worth for a few years until he joined the famous Dorsey Brothers orchestra in 1934, staying with them until 1935 at which time the Dorsey Brothers decided to have their own bands. Ray stayed with Jimmy Dorsey from 1936 to 1939 and then left to join Will Bradley as a featured performer. In 1942 Ray formed a band of his own, playing at the Commodore Hotel in New York City until he entered the Army where he is now playing with Major Glen Miller's Army Air Force Band.

Strictly Fo' Two

Dedicated to Jimmy Crawford by Geo. Wetling

JAMES "JIMMY" CRAWFORD . . . Many bands are using the Lunceford style on which to pattern their arrangements. One of the most important features of this style is the beat, and "Jimmy" Crawford—Lunceford's drummer from 1939-43 is one of the men responsible for the success of this band, which needed the best in rhythm.

He was born in Memphis, Tenn., 1910—where he attended high school. Also attended Le Moyne College. He is famous for the Lunceford "two-beat" which is not to be confused with the dixieland "two-beat". Joined the U.S. Army in 1943.
